

Architect – Senior Architect

The architecture profession faces a challenge: finding the balance between creative vision and practical execution.

At SA Sternberg Architecture, we believe the right Senior Architect can master both. Nine years ago, I started this firm because I believed architecture could be practiced differently with more heart, more purpose, and more joy. Now, we are looking for someone to share that same inspiration.

We're searching for a Senior Architect who's ready to shape more than just buildings, someone who wants to take an important role in the growth of our firm.

At SA Sternberg, we're known for:

- Creating spaces that respond to human needs first
- Pushing sustainable design beyond the expected
- Maintaining client relationships that span decades
- Fostering a collaborative environment where every voice matters

Why join us? Because here, you won't just be executing someone else's vision you'll be creating your own legacy while helping shape ours.
